Leisure Study Opportunity Seekers

This list consists of Australian consumers who have decided to improve their skills, lifestyles and earning potential by enrolling in various home study education courses. Courses offer the opportunity for personal and professional development in such fields as writing, interior design, landscaping, photography, gourmet cooking, life coaching, childcare and many others. These comprehensive courses are designed to not only develop students' skills, but also to help guide them with tips and techniques to turn their new talent into profits! This is a great opportunity to target opportunity seekers who are willing to spend significant amounts in order to improve their lives and financial wellbeing.
